

Gallinger Counterbalance Loom
4 Harness, 4 direct tie-up treadles
42" floor loom
Folded footprint 30" deep x 54" wide x 50 high
A great rug loom!
Includes a 6 dent reed and an 8 dent reed
All new inserted eye heddles - 900 heddles total

This loom was designed by Osma Gallinger, author of "Joys of Handweaving" and was made in Adams, Pennsylvania by a carpenter, Richard S. Starner. Gallinger looms were later made for The Mannings in East Berlin Pennsylvania.

This loom is named Muriel and I would like to sell her for $525.00. Of course, you can rename her if you want. Muriel was from the estate of Muriel Segal, a former MSWG member.
